

News and Notes

February 26, 2010

COSA Vessel Moorings

The City of St. Augustine will continue removal of private moorings from all area waterways. The mooring story on the COSA Web site is about the fields in Salt Run and Matanzas Bay and includes a schedule of removal. To read the story, click here.

Hazardous Materials (Hazmat) Disposal

St. Johns County recently opened a permanent hazmat disposal facility at Stratton Road and U. S. 1 North. The hours of operation are Monday through Friday from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturday from 7 a.m. until 4 p.m. For more information call St. Johns County at 827.6980. To read the news release issued by St. Johns County, click here.

St. Johns County Animal Control

All City of St. Augustine animal control contacts are made through the St. Johns County Division of Animal Control at 829.2226. The Pet Center, located at 130 N. Stratton Road, has new hours effective March 1. To view the news release from St. Johns County, click here. To visit the division's Web site with detailed information on their services, click here. Joe Pomar Park, 1600 Masters Drive, has the only 'doggie park' in the city. All city parks and their locations are on the city Web site, click here.

Professionals Visit WWTP (and City)

A new story on the COSA Web site about how the city saved money at the Wastewater Treatment Plant and industry professionals toured the site plus a bonus touring the city. To read the story, click here.

City Agendas

Code Enforcement Adjustments and Appeals Board agenda for March 9, click here.

All meeting agendas are posted on the COSA Web site at www.staugustinegovernment.com under Your Government.

Cathy DuPont

Public Information Coordinator

City of St. Augustine

904.825.1053