

News and Notes

11 September 2009

New/Old Pews at VIC and New Wells Being Drilled

The City of St. Augustine has two new stories on the city Web site. One is about the new/old pews from a 124 year old church and the other is about drilling deep wells at the city's well field. To read the new stories, click here.

St. Johns River Water Management District Technical Symposium

Registration will end Wednesday, Sept. 16, for the St. Johns River Water Management District's technical symposium on the second phase of the District's investigation of potential effects of water withdrawals from the St. Johns and Ocklawaha rivers. For the news release, click here.

City Directory

A listing of all telephone numbers for city departments is located on the City Web site, under City Directory. To view the listing, click here.

A Reminder About Free Parking

Street parking throughout the City of St. Augustine is always free after 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday and free all day Sunday and holidays.

ParkNow cards (50 cents per hour) can be obtained at the VIC and the Financial Services Center, 50 Bridge St. For more information, click here.

Lincolville Neighborhood Association

The Lincolville Neighborhood Association will meet Tuesday, September 22 at St. Paul AME Church beginning at 6 p.m. with a potluck dinner. The meeting will follow at 7 p.m. For more information email Missy Hall by clicking here.

City Agendas

City Commission meeting Monday, September 14. To view agenda, click here.

All City Commission and board meetings are broadcast live or taped. To view the GTV, Channel 3 broadcast schedule click here.

All other meeting agendas are posted on the COSA Web site at www.staugustinegovernment.com

Cathy DuPont

Public Information Coordinator

904.825.1053